The Association expects an attendance of 75,000 people this year. The Brookville Democrat says: "To make the coming Brookville fair of still greater interest it has been decided to add what may be called a horse fair, and for this purpose a paddock will be set apart for the use of the horse trading fraternity. Therefore, all those having horses to sell or swap are invited to bring their stock and conduct a general trading business according to the rules of the profession. No charge for admission will be made for horses and mules led with a halter into the grounds for the purpose of sale or trade."

Street Gadders.

The race is not always to the swift but it is much more likely to go to the swift than to the street corner ornament. There is some hope for the horse thief, a burglar or a politician, but none whatever for a dead beat. We never could see a ray of hope for the young man who wears the soles of his shoes through while shuffling along the streets with a cigarette in his mouth and a leer on his face. There is no sort of a show in this world for a girl whose whole business in life is to put on all the showy duds she can get and then eternally gad the streets to try to get men to look at her. It takes brains and brains have to be developed by hard study. It takes muscle and muscle must be developed by hard work. It takes taste and taste can only be cultivated by choosing. It takes good manners and manners can never come to those who wait on the streets. The boy who sticks to his job and the girl who thinks more of her home than to be flirting with every dirty manikin she meets are the winners in the race for earth prizes. —DuBois Journal.

In the Oil Field.

Oil experts from other fields have visited St. Marys during the past two weeks and they are unanimous in the opinion that a good oil field is to be developed about our growing city, and that the farmers of Benzinger township will see bright days when their royalties are coming in.

The oil well of Kaul and Hall east of our city is now producing about fifteen barrels of superior oil every day, but it is not yet known what its full capacity will be as it has not yet been thoroughly cleaned out.

Another well will be shot in a few days, and if present indications are a guide, we may expect this well to be as good as the other.

Two strings of tools are now at work putting down holes, and as speedily as possible development will be made to thoroughly test the field. If conditions are as good as is expected, we may hope to be an oil town with a modern refinery and all the prosperity of an oil section. —St. Marys Gazette.

The Mills of the Gods.

Many a foolish and vain woman is dressed in silken gowns and costly plumage, while the husband is driven almost to desperation in a vain attempt to stem the tide of flooding expense. It may do for a time, but let it be remembered that while the mills of the Gods grind slowly, they grind exceedingly fine and they are bound to grind a fine brand of retribution sooner or later. —St. Marys Gazette.

Reduced Rates to Portland, Ore.

On account of the American Mining Congress, to be held at Portland, Ore., August 22 to 27, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round-trip tickets to Portland from all stations on its lines, from August 14 to 17, good returning within sixty days, including date of sale, at reduced rates. For specific information apply to ticket agents.

The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best Salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when Burns, Sores, Ulcers and Piles threaten. Only 25c, at H. Alex. Stoke's Drug Store.

Punxsutawney Fair.

The Punxsutawney fair will be held Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, August 23, 24, 25 and 26. The Punxsutawney Fair Association announce that this fair will surpass any of the fairs held by the association in the past five years. The grounds and buildings have been improved, a new grandstand built, a new waiting room for ladies and a new stand for the judges of the race course are among the improvements. The agricultural exhibits, live stock departments, races, music, &c., have received special attention. The grand cavalcade at 1.00 p. m. Thursday will be one of the most interesting features of the fair, as all live stock must participate in the parade.

Notice to Tax Payers.
